Yesterday's Kitchen & Home

Aunt Barb's Bread Book by Barbara Swell

BOOK: NGB-899 $5.95
ISBN: 9781883206628

Bake up your great grandmother's wholesome, tasty heart-baked breads in your own kitchen today! Be amazed by the stunning loaves you'll pluck from new or vintage cast iron pans, baking stones, or everyday kitchenware as you recreate yesterday's wood-fired oven for your modern range or fireplace. Recipes from 1820 through 1920 include harvest apple bread, whole-grain little gem breads, oat sandwich loaf, buttermilk rolls and lots more. Aunt Barb's Bread Book contains oodles of period photos and bread-lore, and is appropriate for all skill levels. 5 1/2" x 8 1/2", 24 pages.

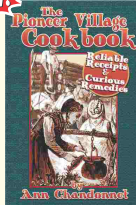

A Garden Supper Tonight by Barbara Swell

BOOK: NGB-316 $12.95
ISBN: 9781883206590

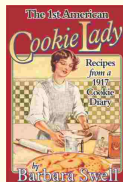

Have a seat on the old front porch glider and let's string this mess of pole beans for our garden feast tonight. We'll have the same in-season supper our great grandmothers frack back in 1895 when food was raised, closely to home and made from scratch for family and friends every day. A Garden Supper Tonight contains vintage economical seasonal recipes, food curiosities, and timeless advice on all things home and gardening. 6" x 9", 152 pages.

The Pioneer Village Cookbook by Ann Chandonnet

BOOK: NGB-460 $12.95
ISBN: 9781883206604

Step into our log cabin village and sample some authentic pioneer cooking! From New England to Texas, from the Appalachians to Pike's Peak, pioneer cooks had to be tough and self-sufficient—able to whip up hearty meals with little more than an iron pot and a sharp knife. Recipes range from Chisholm Trail Chili to Appalachian Stack Cake and Grandma Cody's Applesauce Cookies. If pioneer life has left you bruised and battered, we've included curious remedies and questionable cure-alls. This book is loaded with captivating snippets of information, recipes, vintage art, and much more! 5 1/2" x 8 1/2", 168 pages.

The 1st American Cookie Lady by Barbara Swell

In 1917, Anna "Cookie" Covington set out to record all her favorite cookie recipes as a gift to her daughter because no published cookie recipe books existed at that time. Strangely, her 76 page handwritten cookie cooking diary was never delivered to her daughter as planned. 88 years later, the unused diary fell into the hands of food historian Barbara Swell, who recognized it as perhaps the earliest collection of American cookie recipes, dating from the mid 1880s up through World War I. Includes Anna's 221 recipes recorded from 1917-1920 along with adaptations for the modern kitchen, vintage photos, World War I food shortage recipes, plus curiosities of cookie baking history. 6" x 9", 152 pages.

Early American Cookery by Margaret Huntington Hooker

This amazing piece of folk history was originally published in 1896 amidst a colonial revival frenzy that swept America's eastern seaboard in the 1890s. Determined to preserve American colonial cooking, Margaret Hooker collected quaint and curious recipes and remedies that appear to have come from "old and reliable" sources ranging from the mid 1700s to the mid 1800s. This fun book includes recipes, beauty secrets, etiquette, candle making, household hints, and over 266 original illustrations. Written in 18th century long S style print. 5 1/2" x 8 1/2", 260 pages.
